

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

EXPLOSION SHAKES OHIO TOWNS—Photograph shows all that was left of the plant of the American Nitroglycerin Company, at Bradner, Ohio, when 300 quarts of the deadly compound accidentally exploded. Workmen were able to flee before the explosion had spread destruction among them, but the deafening report shattered every window pane in Bradner and shook many in Toledo, 30 miles away.

(International Newsreel)

LINDBERGH FLIES NEW PLANE—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh at the controls of their new Lockheed Sirius sport plane as it took the air for the first time. This scene was made from the air above the hills of Hollywood. (Right) Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh seated in the cockpit of their new plane.

(International Newsreel)

SAN FRANCISCO YOUTH UPSETS TELEVISION PRECEDENTS—Philo Farnsworth, 23-year-old inventor (right) and Albert B. Mann, consulting engineer, examining transmitter of new television device invented by Farnsworth, backed by Crocker family millions. Farnsworth's dissector tube eliminates movable parts and scanning disks employed in previous television machines and his receiver is greatly simplified. Both transmitters and receivers use ordinary radio broadcasting and receiving sets and are auxiliaries to them.

CHAMPION OF THE SOUTH WILL BATTLE MANDELL—Quintero, known as the lightweight "Champion of the South," in training at Miami Beach for his coming fight with Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion of the world.

(International Newsreel)

INDIAN PRINCESS CHRISTENS PLANE FOR LONG-DISTANCE FLIGHT—The Maharajee of Cooch Behar (center), just after she had christened the Gypsy Moth plane in which Mohan Singh (left) will make an attempt to win the $2,500 prize offered by his countryman, the Aga Khan, to the first Indian to fly from England to India. Singh is a graduate of the University of Bristol.

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF TURKISH ARMY—President Mustafa Kemal Pasha, of the Turkish Republic, in his uniform as Commander-in-Chief of the Turkish Army. President Kemal Pasha will be 50 years old this year. He was elected President August, 1923, and re-elected for another term of four years November 1, 1927.

(International Newsreel)

APPOINTMENT WILL PREVENT RECURRENT OF DOLLY GANGLIAER LONG WORTH SOCIAL FUEL—Warren Delano Robinson, recent Minister to El Salvador, a diplomat and statesman with a long and enviable record, was designated by the White House to be a diplomat with the rank of Minister with duties consisting of acting in a diplomatic capacity for State and social functions.

STRANGEST OF MAMMALS VISITS LOS ANGELES—Sea elephants, natives of the Island of Guadeloupe, are brought to the State for educational purposes. Picture shows Fire Department trying to quell battle between two sea elephants after a deathlike struggle for the supremacy of the tank.

(International Newsreel)

LONG LIVE THE KING OF FRANCE!—French Royalists turn out en masse to welcome home their fiery leader, Leon Daudet, famous author and editor who 30 months ago went into exile in Belgium for his violently demonstrated beliefs that La Belle France should oust its president in favor of a king. Daudet is a son of the famous French novelist, Alphonse Daudet, and was the central figure in an astonishing royalist coup about two years ago.

(International Newsreel)

WILL DEFEND AMERICAN HONORS IN CONTEST WITH NOTED BRITISH SPORTSMAN—Smooth as silk will this 80-ton lead keel of the yacht "Whirlwind" be when these workmen get through with their planning. The yacht, which is under construction at Neponset, Mass., is being built with the idea of speed featuring every line. It will be America's hope to retain the yachting cup which Sir Thomas Lipton hopes to bring back to England with him.

(International Newsreel)